

How to apply for a Langham PhD scholarship

Langham Scholarships are for those who can demonstrate both academic excellence and proven abilities as strategic Christian leaders. Each year we receive many more applications than we can support, but each application is considered carefully and prayerfully.

Before starting the application process, please be sure to read Langham's Statement of Faith and Langham Scholarship Criteria and Instructions and browse the rest of our website to learn more about the work of the Langham Partnership.

As the first stage in the application process, submit the Initial Enquiry Form by clicking the 'apply now' button. Please note that the deadline for submission is 30 September.

Applicants must be Majority World Christian leaders in pursuit of a PhD in one of the following areas:

- Old Testament
- New Testament
- Theology
- Ethics
- Church History
- Intercultural Studies (based on biblical teaching)

If your initial enquiry is successful, you will receive the full Application Form to complete, as the next stage in the application process.

Your application may be sent for confidential review by senior Christian leaders or graduated Langham Scholars in your region. Final decisions are made by the Langham International Scholarship Committee. Selection decisions are usually finalised before the end of June. We are committed to providing both practical and pastoral support to our scholars during their course of study.
